

I value my years of relationship with my independent ISP. I have used the big boys with poor service and relations. Please let the independant ISP's continue operating as they have.